“As far as Oregon wines are concerned, we're a bargain.”

Ryan Harms

Founder

YEP. THIS IS WINE IN A CAN. YOU'RE WELCOME.

When Ryan Harms started Union Wine Company in 2005, he did so with the goal of creating Oregon wines that could be widely accessible to wine drinkers, without sacrificing quality. Underwood exemplifies this commitment and draws from the diverse palette of vineyards and wine growing regions that Oregon offers to create approachable everyday drinking wine of exceptional value.

Sourced from vineyards of the Rogue and Umpqua Valleys of Southern Oregon, the eastern Oregon stretches of the Columbia and Walla Walla Valleys, and our home in the Willamette Valley, this wine is a true representation of our beautiful state. The fruit from these regions bring diversity of character and influence to build depth and complexity to this wine. The warm, dry and mild summer that followed a cool and wet spring allowed the grapes to hang on the vine late into fall, resulting in ideal ripeness of the 2022 vintage. This wine is a classic Oregon pinot noir, with a fantastic balance of vibrant bright red fruit, hints of herbs and spices and a judicious amount of acidity to give the finish great length and focus.
